EUROFISH magazine - Special offer to EAS members: 15% discount

EUROFISH International Organisation, the International Organisation for the development of Fisheries in Central and Eastern Europe, is the successor of the FAO executed regional project EASTFISH (http://www.eurofish.dk).

EUROFISH is a specialised body facilitating the information and decision processes, representing the aquaculture, fish processing and trade sectors and provides an effective and targeted contribution to the EU enlargement process.

The EUROFISH magazine is a glossy, full colour, bimonthly publication and has the widest distribution among fisheries press in Europe. The magazine features regular profiles of the fisheries sector in European countries, trade and market reports, processing and technology, aquaculture, news and reviews of major exhibitions and conferences. The magazine is produced jointly with a German publisher, Fish Publishing house and is distributed to 5000 addresses, mainly in Europe.

EAS members will receive a 15% discount on subscription prices (6 copies per year)
